Declares General Counsel

Edgar J. Rich of

WOULD MENACE
ALL THE PEOPLE

"Issue Is Sharply Drawn
and Must Be Resolutely Met"

Boston, Oct. 27.—The threatened railroad strike would be a strike against every man's job, Edgar J. Rich, general counsel for the Boston and Maine railroad, declared today. He said production could not continue if raw materials and fuel could not be moved.

Addressing the annual meeting of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, he said:

"It is a strike against the health, safety and welfare of every man, woman and child in the United States, for not only will many be without the means of buying the necessities of life through lack of employment, but all will be deprived of pay enhanced prices for the necessities of life."

"The issue is sharply drawn and must be resolutely met."

Mr. Rich said it would be "not an unreasonable prophecy" that next year would be one of prosperity for the railroads of this country as a whole.

"It is believed," he said, "that with the return of normal business the railroads outside of New England will not only find themselves solvent, but will have their credit restored. It is also believed that when traffic returns the New England roads will become solvent, but it is extremely doubtful if their earnings will be sufficient to establish their credit. Credit cannot be

A Well-Known Woman

Utica, N. Y.—"As a tonic and builder for women I would always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Some years ago I became run-down, weak and nervous. How You Can Remove Every Trace of Hair

(Toilet Talks)
A stiff paste made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining delatone. No harm can result from this treatment, but be sure it is delatone you get and you will not be disappointed. Mix fresh as wanted.—Adv.

Painful Sores On Her Ankle

Healed By Hood Preparations.

For two years I suffered greatly from blue veins on my leg. They started with a little sore that grew worse, larger, more painful till it extended around my whole ankle.

I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to purify my blood, with Hood's Medicated Soap to wash the sore, and Hood's Olive Ointment to help heal it. It was soon apparent I was on the right course, for as the result of faithfully taking the Sarsaparilla, the sore diminished and finally disappeared. I heartily recommend these remedies to all suffering from similar troubles. Mrs. John Peterson, Detroit Harbor, Wis.—Adv.

established unless there is a reasonable surplus over and above operating expenses, fixed charges and dividends, and that time is apparently a long way in the future for the New England roads.

He said the New England roads, through reductions of short distance rates, were making a determined effort to get back some of the traffic which had been lost to motor trucks and water transportation. There were "strong evidences," he added, that the railroads would not permit an industry to leave New England if it could be retained "by a proper adjustment of rates." A reduction in rates for this purpose, he said, would "undoubtedly tend to increase revenue."

A "rare opportunity" in the present unemployment situation was seen by Dr. Charles A. Eaton of the Cleveland plant of the General Electric company, who also addressed the meeting.

"Instead of blindly slashing our pay-rolls and indiscriminately discharging our employees," he said, "now is the time when industrial employers have leisure for a complete overhauling of their entire machinery of production. There ought to be a most careful study of men, methods and jobs."

PRIZE FIGHT OR NOT?
Experts Called to Testify in the Dempsey-Carpentier Affair.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 27.—Witnesses believed to know whether the bout of July 2 between Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and George Carpentier of France was prize fight or a boxing match, were summoned to appear to-day before the Hudson county grand jury.

FOR DOUBLE WIN
IN MARKSMANSHIP

Major General Holbrook
Sent Commendatory
Message

Northfield, Oct. 27.—Lieutenant-Governor Abram W. Foote, acting for Governor James B. Hennessey, presented bronze medals from the National Rifle association to six of the 12 members of the 1920 and 1921 champion indoor small bore rifle teams of Norwich university on Sabine field yesterday afternoon. Lieutenant-Governor Foote was accompanied by Adjutant General H. T. Johnson.

The men who received medals were A. V. Harrington of Stoneham, Mass.; A. S. Kerr of Northfield, D. V. Anderson of Montpelier, H. W. Tyler of Rome, N. Y.; J. W. Joslyn of Newburyport, N. H.; W. Sothorn of Rome, N. Y.; L. A. Denmore of Montpelier was ill and could not be present to receive his medal. The five others, W. G. Smith of Stoneham, Mass.; J. F. Loughlin of Stoneham, Mass.; R. K. Shaw of Northfield and G. C. Zwart of Glenbrook, Conn., graduated last June. Their medals will be sent to them.

The governor's party was met at Northfield by Colonel Tompkins of the Norwich university faculty and a troop of mounted cadets, who escorted the party to Sabine field. They were met at the gate by President Charles A. Plumley and escorted to a position in front of the bleachers. The band paraded and orders were read.

Colonel Tompkins then read the following unsolicited letter received Tuesday night from Major General W. A. Holbrook, U. S. A., chief of cavalry:

"War Department,
"Office of the Chief of Cavalry,
"Washington, D. C., Oct. 22, 1921.

"From: The professor of military science and tactics of Norwich university, Northfield, Vt.

"Subject: Commendation of Norwich university rifle teams, 1920 and 1921. '1. Cavalry is justified in modern warfare by its two essential characteristics, mobility and fire power. Mobility enables it to arrive in time and place for the most effective action. Under modern conditions, dismounted action will be the most frequent, and fire power must therefore be developed and applied in suitable tactical formations.

"2. In the mounted instruction of the reserve officers' training corps unit at Norwich university, I have seen the training for mobility very successfully demonstrated. In the victories of the Norwich university rifle teams for 1920 and 1921 in the intercollegiate indoor matches, it has been made clear to me that this every day unit realizes the necessity of developing accuracy of marksmanship to make fire power most effective.

"3. I desire therefore as chief of cav-

HARVARD STARTS GAMES EARLIER

Precedent Broken and Centre College
Contest Will Start at 2:30
Saturday.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 27.—"The play's the thing," the Harvard university faculty has agreed apropos of football. Breaking a rule of long standing that athletic contests should not begin before 3 p. m. until Nov. 1, the academic heads yielded to the request of college sports authorities that next Saturday's game with Centre college be set for 2:30 p. m. The fact that the closing plays of the spectacular contest with Penn State last Saturday were lost in the dusk, and that there was danger of players being injured and spectators being hurt in leaving the wooden stands after dark were considerations in the decision, it was said.

JIMMY GRIEG'S LONG KICK
Made a Name for Him at University of Vermont Recently.

Burlington, Oct. 27.—Jimmy Grieg, a former Spaulding high school boy, made a name for himself in the annual football at the University of Vermont by one kick, made almost in the last few minutes of play of a losing game. Grieg did not get into the game until the last quarter, and with Vermont hard pressed on her own thirty-yard line, he was called upon to boot the pigskin out of danger. His kick the longest by far of any that afternoon, hit the ten yard line of New Hampshire State college, and placed Vermont in a position where a few minutes later the Green and Gold team was threatening the enemy goal, as the final whistle blew. In practice this week, Grieg has been playing right half on the variety and Ryan, the former occupant of the berth, has gone over to the scrubs. It is probable that Keady will give Grieg a start in the M. A. C. game at Amherst this week.

Daughter

New York, Oct. 27.—Examination of dental work in the lower jaw of the body of a woman, found last Saturday in Long Island City, was begun today by Chief Medical Examiner Norris, in an effort to verify a second identification of the body as that of Mrs. Dolly Bailey Higgins. Dr. Norris was assisted by a dentist who had worked on Mrs. Higgins' teeth.

The body was identified for the second time yesterday as Mrs. Higgins by Mrs. Anna Bailey, mother of Mrs. Higgins. This identification was corroborated by two friends of the family who had known Mrs. Higgins well.

Thomas Higgins, husband of the missing Dolly, declared the body was not that of his wife.

A man who Mrs. Bailey said had paid attention to Mrs. Higgins is being sought by the police.

Studebaker

This is a Studebaker Year

For the first eight months of 1921, our sales of Studebaker Cars were 41% greater than for the same period of 1920, and 101% greater than for the same period of 1919. For the same period, our sales of Repair Parts were 13% less than in 1920, and 3% less than in 1919.

On September 1st, 1921, there were approximately 116,000 more Studebaker Cars in operation than two years ago, and yet our parts business is 3% less than it was in 1919. This proves conclusively that—

Studebaker Cars are standing up in service and staying out of repair shops, to a degree unexcelled, we believe, by any cars of whatever price.
